A Captain In the Ranks

By GEORGE CARY EGGLESTON

"You're right, of course. Still, if you choose to take some small risk, I could watch the market for you. I often do that for customers of the bank. I'm naturally in a position to know what's going on. By the way, how much money have you to invest?"

"I have $12,000 in New York!"—
"Where the interest rates are small," interrupted Tandy. "You want to bring it west, where it will earn more. I understand. You're right in that. The west is the place for men and money to do the best they can for themselves. This part of the country is growing like Jack's beanstalk. You must have noticed it. But come, I want to take you for a drive around Cairo to show you what we are doing here and what we are planning to do. I think when you see it you'll know for yourself where to put your money. Can you go with me for a drive?"

"Very gladly. But first I want to arrange to bring to Cairo what money I have. I may not want to invest it all here, but it will be handy to have it here. I should like to put it into your bank as a deposit. But I must draw on New York for it and get you to take my draft. Won't you direct your cashier to telegraph the Fourth National bank of New York, asking for what amount my drafts on that institution will be honored? Then, when we get back from our drive I'll draw for the money and place it on deposit with your bank, where I can put my hands upon it when necessary."

The telegram was sent, and then Tandy took Temple in his carriage, one of the best in Cairo at that time, and showed him all there was of resource in the town, lecturing meanwhile on the prospects of Cairo as a future great commercial and manufacturing center. He showed him all there was to be shown and then said to him:

"Now, I'm an apostle of western development, but still more I'm an apostle of the development of Cairo. I'm a bull on the country and a bull on this city. There is much to be done, and it will require the investment of a great deal of money. But the investments will pay as nothing else promises to do. We must have grain elevators and mills and all the rest of it. We've two big flour mills already, and there will be two or three more within a year. They must have barrels by thousands and tens of thousands. Now, a man of your intelligence must see that empty barrels, being bulky, are costly things to transport over long distances, while the mills must buy them at the lowest possible price. Otherwise they can't sell flour in competition with the mills of other cities. So the necessity of having a big barrel factory here is obvious, and so is the profit. I am just forming a company for that purpose. We have abundant timber right at hand, just across the two rivers, in Missouri and Kentucky. We can make barrels at less cost than they can be had for in any other city, while we have a local market that will be un-failing. The company is capitalized at $25,000, and a good part of it is already subscribed."

He did not say that none of it had been paid for yet and that he was unsuccessfully trying to find buyers for it. "It's a sure thing. The profits will be large from the beginning, and the stock as soon as the factory is in operation will jump up 50 per cent at least. If you want a thousand or so of it, I'll let you in on the ground floor. Other-interested questions concerning them, and at last felt sufficiently sure of his ground to venture a little farther.

"I am inclined to think," he said, "that I shall want to take at least a little of the barrel factory stock tomorrow, and possibly I may subscribe for some of the gas stock also. Of that I am not yet sure. But before I take either I must invest four or five thousand dollars in something absolutely secure. I have been going over the latest reports of your bank and the other one—Hallam's—and they have impressed me with the conviction that the very best and safest investment a man of small means, like myself, can make in this town is in bank stock. This city is a point at which so many lines of travel and traffic converge that the exchange business itself must be sufficient to pay a bank's expenses. In fact, it pays more, as the reports show. And then there is the larger business—lending money on sound enterprises, financing industrial companies and especially advancing money on bills of lading for goods in transit. In view of all this it surprises me to learn that the stock in the two banks here stands only a trifle above par."

"Oh, that's because of two things. People here have got it into their heads that anything less than 10 or 12 per cent as a return for money invested is ridiculously small. So they don't want bank stocks. On the other hand, the eastern capitalists have got it into their heads that anything which pays more than 4 or 5 per cent must be risky, and so they don't set up banks here, as they surely would do but for their foolish timidity. The prospect of a big return for their money simply scares them out of their seven senses. So Hallam's bank and mine have a monopoly of as pretty a business as you'll find in a day's walk. Why, when the rush was on last winter and twenty steamboats a day were leaving Cairo with full cargoes, to say nothing of great fleets of grain barges, Hallam and I both went to New York with our pockets full of government bonds and borrowed money on them for sixty or ninety days. We paid 6 per cent per annum for the money and got from one-half to 1 per cent a day on most of it by advancing on grain drafts, with bills of lading attached. It was as easy as falling off a log and as safe as insuring pig iron under water."

"I have some notion of all that," answered Temple, "and that's the sort of investment I'm looking for. I might take in some more speculative things, but I greatly want to invest a few thousand dollars in the stock of one or other of these two national banks. Could you find somebody willing to sell?"

Tandy had expected this and had prepared himself for it. But he pretended to think for a moment before replying. Then he said:

"As to Hallam's bank, it's useless to try. Hallam and Stafford own the whole thing, except that they have put a share or two into the hands of members of their own families, just by way of qualifying them to serve as directors, as the law requires. Neither one of them would sell a share for twice its market price. The same thing is true, in a general way at least, of our bank. The stock is so good a thing that nobody who has got any of it ever wants to part with it. But it has always been our policy to interest the people in the bank by letting them hold some of its stock. So a good deal of it is held in small lots around town, and now and then one of these is put into my hands for sale. I have four shares now to sell. It belongs to a tug captain who is down on his luck just now and must sell. He wants more than the market price, but the bank has lent him money on it nearly up to its face value, and so I can do pretty much as I please with it. Ordinarily I should buy it myself, but I'm in so many things just now, and besides, I'd like to have you with us."

Tandy did not say that since he had seen Temple in the afternoon he had taken in these four shares of stock for debt at 3 per cent below par, with the fixed purpose of selling them to Temple at 3 per cent above par.

"How many shares did you say there are of it?" asked Temple.

"Four, if I remember right. I really oughtn't to let it slip through my fingers, but—well, I'll tell you what I'll do. If you care to subscribe for a few shares of the barrel company—say one or two thousand dollars' worth—I'll let you have the bank stock at 103."

Temple was eager to close the bargain, but he resolutely repressed his eagerness. He asked a score of questions, as if in doubt, and at last he hesitatingly agreed to make the purchase. The details were to be arranged on the next day, and so Tandy took his leave, and Temple lay awake all night, as he had done on the night before.

DECISIVE OPINION NEW STATE LAWS

Illinois Attorney General Holds
That There Is Plenty of Law to Reach Harriman.

SOME VERY PLAIN SPEAKING

Harriman and His Crowd Referred to as Wreckers Who Have Garnered a Harvest of Millions of Dollars.

Stead Has No Doubt That a Legal Remedy Exists Against Men Who Manipulated Alton Deal.

Springfield, Ill., April 8.—That Governor Deneen is planning to second the efforts of President Roosevelt in investigating the manipulation of railroads by E. H. Harriman and other railroad managers, is evidenced in an opinion handed to Governor Deneen by Attorney General Stead.

The opinion treats of the manipulations of the Chicago & Alton properties within the last few years by Harriman and some of his financial associates, including G. J. Gould, James Stillman and Mortimer L. Schiff. It is given in response to a request communicated from Governor Deneen March 22 last (soon after the return of Governor Deneen and Attorney General Stead from a conference with President Roosevelt at Washington) in which the attorney general is asked to advise what his conclusions are in the matter and what action, if any, is contemplated by the legal department of the state.

After setting out at some length the various manipulations to which the railroad corporations and properties forming the Alton system were subjected, Attorney General Stead concludes there is not the least doubt that a civil remedy exists against the "financiers who have wrecked this prosperous railroad company, and, at the expense of innocent stockholders and bondholders, have gathered to themselves a harvest of millions of dollars."

Mr. Stead is doubtful, however, whether it is the province of the state of Illinois to enforce the remedy. The revocation of the company's charter which apparently would be the natural procedure on the part of the state, would bring most of the suffering upon innocent stockholders, Harriman and his Wall street friends having already unloaded a large part of their holdings.

Mr. Stead inclines to the belief that the remedy lies with the company itself, or in the event of its refusal to act, with some one or more of its stockholders. This conclusion, however, is not final, for the attorney general specifically states that if he should become satisfied upon further investigation that an effective remedy can be enforced by the state, he shall not hesitate to institute proceedings. No opinion is expressed as to whether the members of the Harriman syndicate are criminally liable under the statutes of Illinois.

CANAL PROPHECY

Stevens Says Big Ditch Will Be Opened in 1915.

Colon, April 8.—John F. Stevens, former chief engineer of the Panama canal, was given a splendid send-off previous to his departure for the United States. Mr. Stevens in a speech modestly gave John F. Wallace, whom he superseded as chief engineer, the credit for the organization of the work. This Mr. Stevens declared he had modified only when necessary. He said the preparations deemed necessary two years ago were underestimated, and though the working forces had since been doubled, they still were inadequate. But now, he declared, the machinery had been completed, homes had been provided for 250,000 persons, there were railroad facilities for handling over a million yards of earth monthly, and the organization was so far advanced that it was possible to carry on the work in both wet and dry seasons. He said he firmly believed the canal would be opened in January, 1915. He did not seek the position and was leaving it of his own volition.

Mr. Cleveland's View of It.

New York, April 8.—Former President Grover Cleveland, counsel for the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, has just submitted to that association a brief in relation to the matter of salaries paid by life insurance companies. The occasion for its presentation, it is stated, is the fact that certain Western states have now pending before their respective legislatures bills that would limit the salaries of life insurance officers to $50,000 a year, while in others the limit is fixed at $25,000 a year. Such legislation, Mr. Cleveland's brief holds, is unconstitutional.

Scientific Trust Busters.

New York, April 8.—The executive council of the National Civic Federation has decided on Chicago as the place and May 28-31 as the dates for holding the national conference on combinations and trusts which recently was announced by that organization. The purpose of the conference is to consider the trust and combination problems, especially the question of what amendment if any should be made to the Sherman anti-trust act.

Acts of Late Legislature Will Be
In Force by the Middle of the Week.

RECORD-BREAKING SPEED

Never Before Have the Acts of the Legislature Been Promulgated So
Early in the Season.

Two-Cent Fare Law One of the Most Important Acts to Thus Become Effective.

Indianapolis, April 8.—The acts of the recent legislature will be promulgated by Wednesday, as over eighty counties have notified Secretary of State Sims of receipt of their copies. The last shipments were made today by the state printer, and the proclamation putting the new laws into effect will be made as soon as all of the clerks of the circuit courts send in their certificates showing that the acts are in their possession. Deputy Secretary of State Frank I. Grubbs predicted a month ago that the acts would be promulgated by April 10, and it looks as if he will make good. He worked day and night to get them into print early and is about to break a record for the secretary of state's office. It has been the rule that the acts would be promulgated from the first to the middle of May. Perhaps the most important reform that will take effect with the promulgation of the acts is the two-cent fare law. By the latter part of the week the railroads will be hauling people at one-third less than ever before in this state.

The private banking law goes into effect with the promulgation of the acts, but the public depositories act will not be applied until the first of next December.

REMONSTRANTS LOSE

For the First Time in 48 Years Danville Will Have Licensed Saloons.

Danville, Ind., April 8.—Late Saturday afternoon the board of county commissioners overruled the remonstrance to the applications of Edward D. Crawley, Herbert L. Wilson and Scott M. Lingenfelter for retail liquor license and voted to grant the licenses.

The remonstrators fell down terribly in making proof of the legality of signatures, and 121 names were stricken off, leaving 375 names, thirty-two less than required to make the remonstrance hold good.

The closing days of the long and bitter contest were taken up in sparring for time on the part of the attorneys for the remonstrators, as it has been seen almost from the first that the commissioners would be compelled under the law to grant the license. There is considerable rejoicing among the "liberal" element over the outcome of the fight, and some of the more conservative think that saloons will be preferable to the law-defying drug stores that have held sway so long.

Edward D. Crawley is the first man to be granted a retail liquor license in Danville in over forty-eight years. He is in the restaurant business and is one of Danville's most progressive business men. Wilson and Lingenfelter are in the drug business. The remonstrators have asked for an appeal to the circuit court. In the meantime the saloons will open for business.

Didn't Lose Out Wholly.

Laporte, Ind., April 8.—The affairs of the North Liberty bank, established by J. W. Brooke of St. Louis, who disappeared a number of years ago and whose whereabouts is now unknown, will be settled this week, when the creditors will receive 9 cents and 7 mills on the dollar of their deposits. Brooke is alleged to have defrauded the creditors out of $20,000, and the small amount the depositors will receive represents all that was saved out of the crash.

May Select Indiana Artist.

Indianapolis, April 8.—The Robert Dale Owen memorial association has raised about $1,000 toward buying a bust of the famous Indianian to be placed in the statehouse. Although the matter has not been definitely decided, it is probable that Mrs. Frances Goodwin, a well-known Indiana artist now living in Paris, will be commissioned to do the work.

Teachers Elect Officers.

South Bend, Ind., April 8.—The Northern Indiana Teachers' association, which closed a most successful session here Saturday, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Superintendent J. A. Wood of Laporte; secretary, Miss R. Catherine Beeson of Lafayette. Superintendent W. A. Mills continues as treasurer of the association.

Chicago Gams Invade Indiana.

Hammond, Ind., April 8.—Dearborn Park poolroom was opened Saturday by the Smith-Perry-white syndicate. Three special trains on the Wabash, coming direct from Chicago, went out to the park. The syndicate gets results from Benzing, City Park and Oakland. Lake county officials will act if called on.

Fire of incendiary origin destroyed the Daisy rolling mills at Norfolk, Va., entailing a loss of $100,000.

MRS. C. E. FINK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. This medicine made from native roots and herbs contains no narcotics or other harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

Mrs. C. E. Fink, of Carnegie, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every suffering woman would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to you for advice." It has done me a world of good and what it has accomplished for me I know it will do for others."

When women are troubled with Irregularities, Displacements, Ulceration, Inflammation, Backache, Nervous Prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case.

HEALTH OF WOMEN

In this nineteenth century to keep up with the march of progress every power of woman is strained to its utmost, and the tax upon her physical system is far greater than ever. In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines. They relied upon roots and herbs to cure weaknesses and disease, and their knowledge of roots and herbs was far greater than that of women today.

It was in this study of roots and herbs that Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

DEAD FOR YEARS

ers Whose Names Were Voted In Insurance Election.

THIS IS THE CHARGE MADE

International Policy Holders' Committee Arraigns Big Companies and New York Insurance Department.

Violation of the State Code and Various Forms of Irregularity Are Openly Charged.

New York, April 8.—The international policy holders' committee has issued a statement pointing out alleged violations of the present insurance code by the companies in the recent election of officers and the alleged inefficiency of the department of insurance in conducting the supervision of the election. The statement says in part:

"The international committee has maintained for months in both the Mutual and New York Life canvass a force of watchers and translators, and every effort has been made to protect the interests of policy holders who have voted against the old managements, but the rulings of the inspectors have been so uniformly against us, and being fully satisfied that it is impossible under the present condition to secure a fair count of the vote as cast, we withdrew our watchers."

"From the beginning the companies, with the assistance of the department of insurance, have evaded and nullified in every way possible the law as enacted. The companies filed a list of policy holders at Albany which contained thousands of incorrect addresses, while they gave to agents and canvassers, not alone the correct names and addresses, but the policy numbers of the insured."

The statement then sets forth in detail the various forms of irregularity charged and declares that affidavits show it was practiced on a wholesale scale, but these affidavits the statement asserts were refused consideration. Illustration is given of a family which was recorded as casting five votes, the statement adding: "Investigation showed that not a member of the family voted in the recent election and that they had not resided at the stated address in over two years."

The statement further says: "Numerous instances developed where agents had sent in proxies and ballots bearing the names of policy holders who had been dead for years, while many ballots were cast bearing the names of former policy holders who had allowed their policies to lapse."

"The officers of these companies and the department of insurance are responsible for this condition of affairs."

Young Guatemalan's Bloody Deed.

Mexico City, April 8.—Ex-President Jose Lizandro Barrillas of Guatemala was assassinated in this city last night at 8 o'clock by a young Guatemalan named Cabria, eighteen years old. Ex-President Barrillas was generally considered as strongly opposed to the present government of Guatemala. He was sixty-two years old and was a strong possibility for the next presidency of the country. Cabria, who was arrested, is believed by the police to be a paid assassin.

Seeking an Ocean Waif.

Norfolk, Va., April 8.—The naval tug Potomac has left the Norfolk navy yard to search for the navy coal barge which with ten men aboard broke loose last Monday from the collier Caesar which had been towing the barge up the coast. The barge was lost at sea, being last sighted Thursday.

Mexican Editor in Jail.

El Paso, Tex., April 8.—Because he had been arguing that Enrique Creel, ambassador of Mexico to the United States, could not be elected the constitutional governor of the state of Chihuahua, Silvestre Terrazas, editor of El Correo, a daily newspaper of high standing, published in the city of Chihuahua, is in jail. Mr. Creel's father was an American citizen, which fact, according to the constitution of the state of Chihuahua, renders Mr. Creel ineligible for the office of constitutional governor.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of such medicinal compounds, Dr. E. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed all medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the test of public opinion.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different diseases containing in it, and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their women. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up of improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overgrowth of the womb, and all other nervous and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

MONDAY APRIL 8, 1907

THE Thaw trial is to be concluded this week according to New York dispatches. The sooner the better for the people have already had an overdose of sensationalism from that source.

Now that the acts of the legislature are being distributed and the people are learning more about the work of the recent legislature they are finding out that the sixty-fifth General Assembly passed numerous good laws for the people. In fact the work of this legislature was far superior to that of many past sessions and the people will so regard it when they are fully acquainted with the new laws.

The big Wall street gamblers and the railroad manipulators who have made their millions by crooked manipulations, are not pleased because President Roosevelt has been moving against them. No one expected them to take kindly to the "square deal" idea, therefore their ranting now surprises no one. The people are on the side of the President and will back him to the end. He is the friend of the people and it is for their good that he is showing up such men as Harri-man and telling them that they must stop their crooked work.

Importance of Pepper.

Black and white peppers are universal spices. The world consumes upward of 42,000,000 pounds of pepper a year, and its physiological and psychological effect upon nations is tremendous. It is used as a stimulant in place of liquor in some places, and as a remedy for colds among the loggers of the northwest. Half our popular dishes would lose their attraction if pepper was cut out of cookery. Appetites would decline, and the effect upon the mind would be most disastrous.

Truth In Burns' Jest.

Burns when only beginning to taste the pleasures of celebrity prophesied jokingly that his birthday would one day be reckoned among the remarkable events in his country's history. In a letter written to Gavin Hamilton in 1786 he says: "For my own affairs, I am in a fair way of becoming as eminent as Thomas a Kempis or John Bunyan, and you may expect henceforth to see my birthday inscribed among the wonderful events in the Poor Robin and Aberdeen almanacs along with the Black Monday and the battle of Bothwell Bridge."

A RELIABLE STRENGTH CREATOR

Vinol is the latest scientific production of the greatest tonic re-builder the world has ever known, namely, cod liver oil.

In Vinol the useless, system-clogging, nauseating oil is eliminated, and the medicinal, curative elements known to exist in the cod's liver are administered in a highly concentrated form, with tonic iron added.

This is why Vinol is so strongly recommended by physicians and guaranteed by over five thousand of the leading druggists of the United States as a body-builder and strength creator for old people, weak women, puny children, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases. The doctor knows what he is giving, and the patient knows what he is taking.

Our leading druggist, W. F. Peter says: "We sell Vinol on a guarantee that it is and will do all we claim for it, or refund money without question." W. F. Peter Drug Co.

MORE WORK

Further Improvements In Business Section Made Recently.

In the REPUBLICAN of last Saturday were mentioned a few of the many recent improvements on Second and Chestnut streets in only two or three squares distance but much more has been done on these streets. Farther south on Chestnut street are the improvements at the Greek candy store and the addition of a new stock of dry goods by W. H. Reynolds and the other improvements which go along with it.

The building occupied by the Loertz bakery has all been remodeled, plastered and extensive changes made within the past few weeks.

Considerable work was being done on the William furniture building in getting ready to open the new skating rink. The Hoadley business block is new and one of the best in the city.

The Seymour Business College and the Seymour School of Music are new institutions located on this street and they are valuable to the city.

Extensive improvements were made on the building occupied by the Goyert-Vogel Poultry Company at the corner of Chestnut and Bruce streets.

The Walters blacksmith shop occupies a new building just south of this.

The frame residence on the opposite side of the street, and next door to the Seulké grocery store, has just been torn away by Mr. Grelle to make room for a more modern building which is to be constructed a little later.

All these and those mentioned Saturday are only a part of the improvements within a distance of about six blocks on these two streets that are to be traversed by the interurban lines.

Log Teams Scare.

Thomas J. Stanfield and George Schrier went to Henryville this morning where they expected to purchase a team for use in hauling some of the timber which they purchased at that place some time ago. The company has about 1,500 logs there to haul to the station. All of them are to be shipped to this city before they are sawed. The intention is to leave the team at that place all summer. All the company's teams are busy here and none of them could be spared for the Henryville job. During the winter weather the teams off the interurban line were utilized and they brought in many logs but these teams are now back on the interurban job. Log teams are now scarce.

Failed To Find Wife.

James Timbrook, a tanner of First street, whose wife of a few weeks deserted him Wednesday morning, returned from Jackson county Friday afternoon, where he went in search of her among her relatives of that county, but he failed to find a trace of her. While gone the husband was also unable to discover any cause for the strange conduct of his wife and he is wholly at sea as to the motive for her leaving.—Columbus Republican.

Assistant Pastor

Sunday the German Lutheran church adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of an assistant pastor and electing Rev. Ed Schmidt, son of Rev. Ph. Schmidt, the pastor, to the position. He will graduate the latter part of June and soon after that will take up the work here. He is a young man of ability and already knows this field. He will have special charge of the English work. The work of this church has grown to such an extent that the pastoral work is more than one man can well do. Many of the congregation, about seventy-five families, live outside the city.

Advice of the largest coffee dealers in the world is always to buy the old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee in the sealed packages. Don't ask for a pound of Mocha and Java, or buy by the price, for Coffee fluctuates and you cannot get the same coffee for the same price all the time unless you pay too much for it. Most of the so-called Mocha and Java Coffee is simply masquerading, and is not nearly as good coffee for you as Arbuckles' ARIOSA, the blend of the Brazilian Coffees most suitable to the taste and health of American people. By the looks there is no difference between roasted Java and Brazilian Coffees; many people drink Brazilian but pay for Java. The principal difference is that Arbuckles' costs you less. It is a mistake to believe that a high price guarantees quality. When you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, you get a full one pound package of the leading Coffee of the world. Its sales for 37 years are greater than the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. By giving better Coffee for the money, we have built up a business exceeding the combined businesses of the four next largest coffee firms in the whole world. If your dealer will not supply the genuine, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Annual Meeting of Sunday Schools at Tampico.

The annual meeting of the Jackson County Sunday School Association will be held in the Christian Church at Tampico on April 15 and 16. The first session will be on Monday evening at 7:30 April 15 and the chief features that evening will be an address by E. W. Halpenny, general secretary of the State Sunday School Association.

The program for Tuesday is sufficient to make that a very busy day for the convention. A number of timely subjects have been assigned to persons ably qualified to discuss them. The people of Tampico and Grassy Fork township are showing a decided interest in the meeting and will extend a cordial welcome to all.

Every Sunday School in the county should send delegates and participate in this general Sunday School movement. The REPUBLICAN would be pleased to publish the names of delegates appointed.

Base Ball.

The Seymour Gray's went to Franklin this morning where they are playing the Franklin College base ball team this afternoon. The Seymour boys have a pretty fair line up and expect to make a good showing in the game. Some of them confidently expect to come home with one victory to their credit to start the season. A glance at the following list will show that Franklin will have to hustle if they win the game:

Among those who went along as mascots, bat carriers, impies, time keepers, rooters, substitutes, etc. were Theodore Seulke and Stanley Switzer. One prediction on the score was 7 to 3 in favor of the Seymour. Another was to be 1 to 0 in favor of Seymour. The game was to be called at three o'clock. Tip Ross manager. The boys will return home this evening either at 5:45 or on the nine o'clock train. If you hear the band out you will know that the Seymour boys have won a victor.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

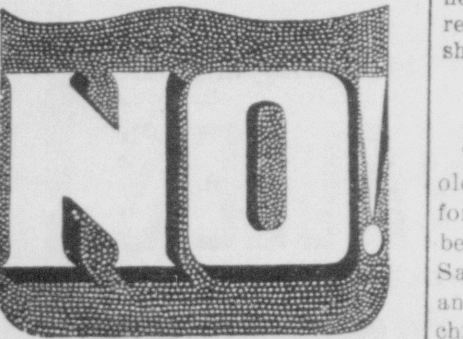

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until as last Dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. Kodol is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a much needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. Kodol is sold on a guarantee relief plan. THE THIRD ATTEMPT

To Wreck Pennsylvania Fast Train Arouses the Company.

Pittsburg, April 8.—A statement issued from the headquarters of the Pennsylvania lines west says that company is making every effort to capture the person or persons who attempted to wreck train No. 322 on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division near Hudson, O., Saturday night, and for whose arrest a reward of $2,500 has been offered, with an additional $2,500 if they are taken within the next twenty-four hours. The sheriffs of Summit, Portage and Cuyahoga counties with their deputies and the chief of police of Cleveland are exerting every effort today to locate some trace of the wreckers.

While the search is in progress officials of the railroad have been making a rigid investigation into the derailment. Sunday a test was made to discover how long it would take a man familiar with track work to arrange the rails so as to throw a train off the track. The conditions under which the wrecker or wreckers worked were duplicated as nearly as possible and the test showed that one man, working rapidly, could draw the spikes, remove the fish-plates and bend the rail inward, securing it in that position, in about five minutes. The test was made in daylight, however, and the investigation shows that the wreckers worked in the dark, so that it would probably have taken a longer time to complete the task. Officials of the Pennsylvania railroad are thoroughly aroused at this third attempt to wreck fast trains.

Hard Time in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. It was a case of "my children and your children can't get along with our children," and the quarrels that resulted caused Mrs. Hardin to swear out a warrant against her husband and he was forced to flee against her. RHEUMATISM AN ACID BLOOD POISON

Rheumatism is an acid blood poison, and the causes that produce it are often silently accumulating in the system for years. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general inactive condition of the system leaves the refuse and waste matter, which should be carried off, to sour and form uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. When the blood is in this acid-charged condition, it deposits the poisons and irritating particles with which it is loaded in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones. Then Rheumatism gets possession of the system, and life is made miserable by its pains, aches and discomforts. The changing of the weather, exposure to cold and dampness, etc., always increase the trouble, and so severe does the pain become that quick relief must be had. A good liniment or plaster is often helpful, but it should be remembered that relief from such treatment is only temporary, because the trouble is in the blood and cannot be removed by external applications. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by ridding the blood of the cause. It goes down into the circulation and by invigorating and purifying the blood of the acid-poison and sending a stream of fresh, rich blood to all parts, relieves the pain, reduces the inflammation, and permanently cures this painful disease. S. S. S. is the only safe treatment for Rheumatism, because it does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to damage the system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired sent free.
